

Science Saturday

at

UMHB

WHAT: Hands-on science and math activities for children, grades pre-K - 5

WHEN: Saturday, November 2nd, 9 am to Noon

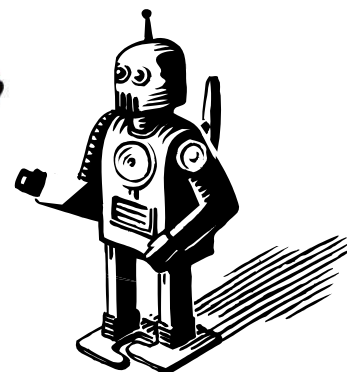

WHERE: York/Wells Science Center (corner of Martin Luther King Ave and Moore Ave on the UMHB campus)

ADMISSION: One non-perishable food item per family. Food will be donated to Helping Hands Ministry of Belton.

Sponsored by UMHB College of Humanities & Science

Planned Activities:
Hiding in Plain Sight (Biology)
Alka Seltzer Rockets (Chemistry)
Use Geometry to Create Art (Math)
Fun with Robots (Engineering)

Contact Dr. Cat Early at cearly@umhb.edu for more information.

Participating Student Organizations:

Beta Beta Beta (Biology)

Sigma Pi (Chemistry)

Delta Psi Theta (Math)

Pre-Health Professions Club

